

IT WAS A JONAH

Saw Mill That Blew Up at East Jordan

A BRIDE OF ONE OF THE DEAD

In Convulsions—Heart-Rendering Scene at the Site of the Terrible Accident.

EAST JORDAN, Mich., March 22.—At the excitement quells down the details of the great mill explosion here become more appalling. The mill has always been a losing venture and a Jonah, every one who took hold of it coming out a loser. There was no insurance. Among the particularly distressing features of the explosion, aside from the seven deaths it has already occasioned and the probable death of at least one more victim, is the loss of his eyes by the fireman, John Ringold, who is a poor man, depending on his days' work to support his wife and three children. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook had not been married very long and the loss of the husband is extremely sad at this time. She is in a delicate condition and is left without support or means. She is raving in spasms and doubts are entertained of her recovery. Sandy Reinhardt, who was among the injured, is badly scalded about the face, and his back is one complete blister. His left leg was broken in two places and one arm is broken. He presents a frightful appearance. He cannot live. Jonathan Nelson is badly bruised, but will recover. The scenes at the wreck were heart-rending. Among the most pitiful sights was a man's leg lying several rods from his dead body from which it had been severed by the frightful violence of the explosion. People from surrounding towns for a distance of twenty miles came to view the scene. Doctors from Charlevoix were summoned to aid in taking care of the wounded. Amzi Christy, in the list of mortally wounded, has parents living in Pennsylvania and one brother in Chicago. He had the presence of mind to direct where to find them before dying. Willie Beach's widowed mother is in southern Michigan. All the bodies of the dead will be most tenderly cared for by William Porter, who is the active member to the East Jordan Lumber company, in this place. The other members of the firm live in Chicago. The funeral of Cook will be under the auspices of the Workmen's society of this place, of which he was an active member.

CONSIDINE'S CONDITION.

He Has Held His Own Since Yesterday Afternoon.

DETROIT, March 22.—At 11 o'clock this morning the condition of John Considine was unchanged from last evening, and his physicians still believe he has a chance for his life. R. A. McArthur, who shot him, is still at police headquarters and is still receiving a great deal of attention from the public, although fewer people see him now than on Sunday.

BAD WORK AT MUSKOGEE.

Great Damage to the Telephone Service by a Storm.

MUSKOGEE, March 22.—Last night's storm worked havoc with the telephone exchange of this city. Five large poles were toppled over, entangling wires, causing a number of telephones to burn out, interfering seriously with the fire alarm system and starting several fires about town. The telephone system will be in a bad state by three of the switchboards being burned out. The wind and sleet did the damage, and the tangled wires have placed the telephone exchange in a demoralized state.

FLOURING MILL BURNED.

Big Fire at Charlotte and Lots of Grain Destroyed.

CHARLOTTE, Mich., March 22.—The large flouring mill owned by J. P. Perkins in this city was entirely consumed by fire this morning. The mill had recently been repaired at considerable expense and was one of the largest in the state. There was a large stock of flour ready for shipment, and an immense stock of grain on hand. It was insured for $60,000. The total loss has not been estimated.

Notes from Fennville.

FENNVILLE, March 22.—J. F. Barton, who has been spending the winter in Florida, returned to his home last evening. He reports everything booming and blooming in that torrid peninsula and that he is highly pleased with the state. Clark Johnson is pushing his house to a finish, the frame being complete and the veneering of brick masonry in place. It will be a handsome structure. Messrs. Hutchins & Hutchins have put a three-horse power upright engine and boiler in their shop in connection with their business. This is a step in the right direction. "Deak" is chief engineer. M. A. Chapman has sold his barber shop to A. Robinson, and retires from the business.

Indeterminate Convicts.

IOXIA, Mich., March 22.—Four indeterminate sentence prisoners were released yesterday on habeas corpus writs. They were Harry Palmer of Bay City, sent up in July, 1890, for criminal assault; Robert Wilks of Bay City, October, 1890; Robert Hannan of Pontiac, February, 1890; and Charles Gordon of Grand Haven, November, 1889; all three for burglary.

She Worked Around to It.

"What a fortunate thing it is," she said, "that I do not have to earn my own living like some girls."

"I should have to see those little hands soiled by labor," said he.

"I don't mind that so much," she said, "as she looked dreamily at the fire, but if I had to earn my own living I should be obliged to get up early in the morning."

"True," he said, "shuddering. 'Pray do not mention such a thing.'"

"And if I had to get up early in the morning," she continued, "with a glance at the clock, 'I wouldn't get half of my natural sleep.'"

Then he arose and took his hat and went forth into the night and meandered slowly home under the silent stars.—New York Press.

THE BEST

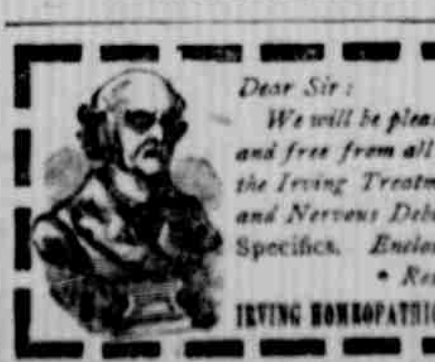

SWIFT'S SPECIFIC is the best spring medicine, because it assists nature to throw off the impurities of the blood by its prompt action on the skin, and at the same time tones up the entire organism. This is just contrary to the effect of the various potash, mercury, arsenic mixtures, which bottle up the impurities in the system, thus producing much sickness and suffering. Therefore, for a you cannot do better than to take a few bottles of S.S.S.

Spring Medicine

"As a physician, I have prescribed and used S.S.S. in my practice as a spring tonic, and for blood troubles, and have been very successful. I never used a remedy which gave such general satisfaction to myself and my patients." L. B. RICHY, M.D. Mackey, Ind.
